

Til We Meet Again...

Join us for a Virtual AAHN Conference

October 3, 10:00 am - 12:30 pm EST

— AGENDA —

10:00 am | Welcome and Introductions

10:15 am | Keynote Address: From Blitzkrieg to an Enduring Crisis: War Nursing on the Home Front
1 CE credit

Presented by Dr. Jane Brooks, RN SHFEA

For the six years of World War II with ever depleting resources, to the final throws of Hitler's campaign against Britain with the deathly V1 and V2 pilotless bombs, the nation's nurses not only faced danger themselves, but worked to support the dying, the bereaved, the injured, and the needy. This talk will examine the work of those young women, on whose shoulders were placed great expectations and huge burdens, and explore the manner in which they supported a nation at home and at war.

This nursing continuing professional development activity was approved by the Ohio Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation (OBN-001-91)

11:15 am - Annual Membership Meeting

Presented by Arlene Keeling, AAHN President

Join our annual membership meeting where we will discuss important association updates, review board reports, conduct the awards presentation, and introduce our exciting new virtual series Talking History 2.0: A Nursing History Webinar Series coming next year.

— REGISTRATION —

This event is free for members to attend, but registration is required. In lieu of a registration fee, we are asking for donations to the association. Donations may be made online during the registration process at AAHN.org.

Attendees who participate in the full meeting will be entered to win one (1) complimentary registration to the Talking History 2.0 series coming in 2021.
